

Yolanda King

Columbus Academy April 22, 2003 7:30 p.m.
Schoedinger Theatre 4300 Cherry Bottom Rd. Public Invited--Free

The eldest child of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Coretta Scott King, Yolanda King has been in the midst of the struggle for human rights all her life. Committed to using her artistic talents to encourage social and personal change, Ms. King has appeared in numerous television and film projects including Selma, Lord, Selma, Death of a Prophet, Ghosts of Mississippi and King. She has lectured across the U.S., Europe, Africa and Asia, and often tours the country with her theatrical production, Achieving the Dream. Ms. King's appearance is part of Columbus Academy's Currier Lecture Series. For information, call 509-2282.