- Ability to teach life science, physical science, astronomy and chemistry
- A reflective practitioner, committed to a continuous process of self-improvement and lifelong learning
- Leadership qualities to inspire and motivate students
- A passion to teach and attend to the specific needs of middle school-aged children

Position Expectations (the individual selected to this position will be expected to carry out the following responsibilities):

- Teach four to five sections, which meet regularly but not daily
- Assume a limited share of supervisory responsibilities expected of all middle school faculty members
- Serve as a student grade-level advisor to roughly 10 students; prepared to learn and implement middle school advisory curriculum
- Collaborate with departmental colleagues on curriculum design and development
- Provide periodic updates to parents about student progress, via both written reports and in-person conferences
- Make use of technological resources, including the school's online learning management site for classes and integration of iPads and laptops in classroom activities
- Hold students accountable for the school's standards of behavior
- Work with others in the school community to support each student's emotional well-being

Physical Conditions (candidates must be able to manage the following conditions):

- Classroom environment
- Mobility around school buildings and on different floors (handicap accessible)
- Repetitive motion (use of a keyboard)
- Periodic need to move light furniture, hang visuals, carry objects (no more than 40 pounds), etc.
- A non-smoking campus

Legal Requirements: All Columbus Academy employees must pass required criminal records checks. Where appropriate, individuals will also be required to provide proof of academic credentials.

To Apply: Interested candidates should apply online at columbusacademy.org/apply.

Columbus Academy believes strongly in the principles of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging. We strive to foster a diverse campus community, which recognizes the value of all persons regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability or socioeconomic background.
