

Part-Time Upper School Science Teacher

The School: Founded in 1911, Columbus Academy is a PreK-12 coeducational college preparatory day school of over a thousand students located on a 231-acre campus ten miles from downtown Columbus, Ohio. Student programs are organized into three divisions: Lower School (PreK-Grade 5), Middle School (Grades 6-8) and Upper School (Grades 9-12). The school offers a vigorous academic program as part of its mission to educate the whole child – mind, body and character. Columbus Academy faculty and staff members are expected to be continuous learners in their fields, to engage in caring and cooperative partnerships with colleagues and parents, to have a demonstrated commitment to the values of equity and inclusion, and to help each student reach his or her full potential.

The Position: Columbus Academy seeks a part-time Upper School Science Teacher with responsibilities to begin in August 2018.

Qualifications (preferred candidates will possess the following qualifications):

- Bachelor's degree or higher in biology or chemistry
- 2+ years teaching experience in these fields
- Ability to teach biology to freshman students with the flexibility to teach chemistry to sophomores (this class includes a laboratory component)
- A reflective practitioner, committed to a continuous process of self-improvement and lifelong learning

Position Expectations (the individual selected to this position will be expected to carry out the following responsibilities):

- Teach two sections, which meet regularly but not necessarily daily
- Assume a share of supervisory responsibilities expected of all upper school faculty members
- Collaborate with departmental colleagues on curriculum design and development
- Provide periodic updates to parents about student progress, via both written reports and in-person conferences
- Make use of technological resources, including the school's online learning management site for classes, and integration of iPads and laptops in classroom activities
- Hold students accountable for the school's standards of behavior
- Work with others in the school community to support each student's emotional well-being
