About Columbus Academy

Recognized as a premier independent school in the nation, Columbus Academy has, since its founding in 1911, exemplified the country day school educational model. The heart of this model is the idea that the best interests of children are served when home and school work together.

At Columbus Academy, parents are integral members of our community. In our welcoming school, fully dedicated to the development of young scholars, athletes and artists of every kind, parents find what they are looking for: The school to trust with childhood.

We believe that diversity, inclusion, equity and justice are essential measures of our excellence. Our goal is not to mold young minds but to light them on fire.

Visit us and you will see this in the way we teach and the way our 231-acre campus is designed — the light, the energy and the interconnectedness of our mindfully designed learning spaces that allow for children to gaze out to the open sky.

Our Mission

Columbus Academy – an independent, coeducational college preparatory school – enriches its academic tradition of excellence by valuing a broad diversity of students as it seeks to develop the complete person: mind, body and character. The school rewards rigorous effort and accomplishment, fosters compassion, respect and moral courage, and insists on integrity, fair play and community service. Academy strives to develop and sustain a community of thoughtful, responsible, capable and confident citizens eager to engage in a pluralistic and ever-changing world.

Position Description

Columbus Academy seeks a full-time Upper School Spanish Teacher with responsibilities to begin in August 2026.

We are seeking a passionate and dynamic Spanish teacher who will bring language to life through immersive, hands-on experiences. Our 231-acre campus, rich with diverse learning spaces, provides the perfect backdrop for cultural exploration and interactive learning. The ideal candidate will integrate Spanish language instruction with real-world applications, fostering fluency through storytelling, creativity, culinary and travel-based projects. By creating engaging, student-centered lessons, leading cultural field studies and incorporating global perspectives, this educator will inspire a deep appreciation for the Spanish-speaking world and its diverse cultures.

The individual selected for this position will be expected to carry out the following responsibilities:

- Teach five sections of Spanish, which meet regularly but not necessarily daily
- Assume a share of supervisory responsibilities expected of all upper school faculty
- Collaborate with departmental colleagues on curriculum design and development
- Provide periodic updates to parents about student progress via both written reports and conferences
- Make use of technological resources, including the school's online learning management site for classes and integration of iPads and laptops in classroom activities
- Hold students accountable for the school's standards of behavior
- Work with others in the school community to support each student's emotional well-being

Qualifications

Preferred candidates will possess the following qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Spanish as a second language or native speakers with a degree in Education
- 3+ years experience teaching Spanish in a high school or college
- Ability to teach all courses and levels of Spanish, from level 1 to Honors level 5 (including preparations for AP exams)
- A reflective practitioner committed to a continuous process of self-improvement and lifelong learning
- Evident enthusiasm for teaching young language-learners

Physical Conditions

Candidates must be able to manage the following conditions:

- Classroom environment
- Mobility around school buildings and on different floors (handicap accessible)
- Periodic need to move light furniture, hang visuals in classroom, carry objects (no more than 40 pounds), etc.
- Ability and enthusiasm to be outside with children during all seasons utilizing the extensive campus

Columbus Academy believes strongly in the principles of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging. We strive to foster a diverse campus community, which recognizes the value of all persons regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability or socioeconomic background.

Legal requirements: All Columbus Academy employees must pass required criminal records checks. Where appropriate, individuals will also be required to provide proof of academic credentials.
